SPONSORSHIP OVERVIEW FOR 2011

The Critter Barn educates children about farming, animals, and food sources, and inspires people of all ages and abilities through the miracles of creation found at the farm.

Goals

- To enjoy hands-on experiences at a real farm
- To connect people to agriculture and food sources
- To teach about sustainability and healthy life styles
- To enable children to volunteer and learn to work
- To inspire people of all ages through animals and plants found at the farm

Impact

- 6,000 children visit during field trips for schools
- 25,000 people attend Traveling Farm events
- 500 children enroll in summer classes
- 15,000 adult volunteer hours
- 6,400 Critter Crew volunteer hours, age 8-16
- 700 children and youth have volunteered
- 22 people with disabilities volunteer weekly
- 45 Environmental and Ag OAISD students
- 70 students from Baker College Vet Tech Program
- 3 MSU Interns from the Animal Science Program
- Crittter Barn animals are sold for pets and breeding
- The Critter Barn grows for production and sells thousands of eggs, 100 chickens, 60 turkeys, rabbits, 15-20 lambs, 8 pork, 5-10 goats, and 2 beef annually.
- We donate eggs to His Harvest Stand and garden crops to Living to Serve.
